In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the evidence presented at the detention hearing, accusations in the criminal complaint, and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 23-year old male born in Harlingen, Texas. He was raised by his maternal grandmother. He is not married, but has custody of three daughters who live with his grandmother in Harlingen. His grandmother is also caring for two other grandchildren and is too overwhelmed by her current responsibilities to take on any additional responsibility for defendant. His father is in jail. His mother was recently released from jail. Defendant has no stable family ties or employment history.
2. Defendant has prior convictions as a juvenile for burglary and criminal mischief, a felony conviction for burglary, and a conviction for possession of cocaine.
3. Defendant is currently charged with transporting illegal immigrants in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324, a charge having a potential penalty of up to 10 years confinement.
4. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
